Universal Studios Japan to Reopen on June 1, 2021 and Operate on Weekdays

Due to the State of Emergency, Universal Studios Japan has been temporarily closed since April 25, 2021. Universal Studios Japan will reopen on June 1, 2021 and will operate at a reduced capacity on weekdays only until further notice.

Universal Studios Japan will continue to implement enhanced health and safety protocols and capacity control measures while Osaka Prefecture remains under a State of Emergency and thereafter. Universal Studios Japan will encourage guests to depart the theme park at varied times to avoid congestion. Indoor dining dividers were also installed at restaurants throughout the park.

In support of Universal Studios Japan's commitment of the prevention of the spread of COVID-19, all team members other than essential operational team members will continue to work from home.

Safety Measures at Universal Studios Japan

Since April 2020, Universal Studios Japan has participated in organizing and updating the "Novel Coronavirus Spread Prevention Guidelines for Theme Parks and Amusement Parks" together with various corporations and related organizations.

The health and safety of our guests and team members continue to be our top priority. Universal Studios Japan has thorough sanitization enhancement measures and capacity controls in accordance with said guidelines and guidance from the government and local authorities. Universal Studios Japan will continue to work towards supporting the quick recovery of the economic activities and the tourism and entertainment industry.
