Universal Studios Japan signs
A Basic Agreement With
Japan Association for the 2025 World Exposition

- Collaboration towards Osaka & Kansai area to thrive further -

Universal Studios Japan has signed a basic agreement with the Japan Association for the 2025 World Exposition to start consideration about possible collaborations towards the 2025 World Exposition's success, which would also help the local region to thrive further. (For more information about this agreement, please refer to the press release issued by the Japan Association for the 2025 World Exposition. URL: <https://www.expo2025.or.jp/news/news-20201120/>)

J.L. Bonnier CEO says that "The impact that a globally spotlighted event such as Expo 2025 provides to our local region would be enormous and I cannot wait to see the positive effects that could bring. We always have recognized how important it is to support our community to further thrive and we see this agreement as a great opportunity for us to continue to contribute to society."

Universal Studios Japan will continuously make efforts in contributing to the local region and promoting a sustainable society as an entertainment leading company.
