September 10 (Mon), 2007

Universal Studios Japan™ will again hold its popular annual special Christmas event, “Universal Wonder Christmas,” for a total of 48 days between November 8 (Thursday) and December 25 (Tuesday) 2007.

During the event period, a new Christmas show, “Santa's Toy Party,” will debut this year. The show will be performed during the daytime in the New York Area. Taking place on a tower stage that stands about 16 meters high, this song and dance show performed by Santa Claus, reindeers and Christmas toys will be the new daytime highlight of the Park for this event period.

In addition, “Universal Super Christmas Tree,” Japan's tallest Christmas tree towering at a height of 36 meters, which is well received every year, will appear in front of the set of the façade of the New York City Public Library at the end of the New York Area of the Park. In front of the Christmas tree standing tall and beautiful as the Park's symbol of Christmas, the after-sunset “White Christmas Carol” singing show will return this year. Through the staging of these two different shows in the daytime and nighttime, this year's Christmas will undoubtedly captivate countless guests of all age groups.

*As of August 2007. Based on in-house research of records in fiscal 2006 concerning freestanding artificial Christmas trees.

NEW! As If a Toy Box has Been Emptied Out,

Fun and Lively Daytime Christmas Show "Santa's Toy Party" Debuts this Year!

A new daytime Christmas show, "Santa's Toy Party," debuts this year, showing twice every day in the New York Area. On and surrounding the stage adorned with colorful Christmas decorations based on the image of "Santa Claus' toy factory," Santa Claus' elf helpers will be busily preparing presents. A musical band aboard a vehicle with a toy train design will make a grand appearance and make its way towards the stage, playing "Jingle Bells," "Rudolf the Red Nose Reindeer" and other well-known Christmas carols.

Joining the elves on the stage one after another will be such characters as snowman and toy soldiers, as well as dancers clad in Christmas costumes, singing and dancing merrily and boosting the show along with guests. Santa Claus will appear at the climax and the show will come to its finale amidst resounding Christmas carols.

Spend a Romantic Night with the Magnificent Singing Show "White Christmas Carol" Staged in Front of Japan's Tallest "Universal Super Christmas Tree"

"White Christmas Carol" is a romantic singing show featuring male and female soloists and with an exquisite live string performance reverberating throughout the night sky.

The Park will be filled with the impressive mood of Christmas as soloists perform classic Christmas carols such as "Ave Maria," "Angels We Have Heard on High (Gloria)," "Joy to the World" in tune with the sounds of the violin, cello and other string instruments. This romantic show, which features angels with white wings and pyrotechnics fired high up into the air for the climax, staged in front of Japan's tallest Christmas tree, will this year again move guests as it has in past years.

Park Packed with Christmas-Exclusive Delights!

The Park will be full of the Christmas spirit during the Christmas event period with festive decorations and music. A gigantic wreath with a diameter of 5 meters adorning the entrance gate, a canopy lit up in green in the image of Christmas in the Hollywood Area and the streets of the Hollywood Area ornamented with Christmas decorations will greet guests.

Photo opportunities (fee applies) with Characters dressed in Christmas costumes will be available for the enjoyment of Park guests. Additionally, the Park will see numerous street performances exclusive to the Christmas season like "Toy Soldiers" and "Angels." These will certainly further boost the Christmas mood.

Park restaurants will be offering a "Happy Family Christmas Set" for families to indulge, as well as Christmas treats such as "Christmas Tree Cream Puff Cake" and "Love Love Christmas Sundae." Furthermore, authentic special course meals that will enhance the romantic mood will be served at "Lombard's Landing" and "Park Side Grille" for a limited time only between December 22 and December 25. The shops within the Park will be stocked with over 100 kinds of Snoopy and Sesame Street Christmas goods which are sought after each year. A lineup of limited Christmas edition original products ranging from confectionary to plush dolls will be awaiting guests.

“Universal Wonder Christmas” is a special event that can be enjoyed with your ordinary Studio Pass.
